

Research data

What do we do? What should we do?

Andrew Walker

Aims

An opportunity to reflect on our current practice around research data including policy and practicalities

Pick up tips from each other, and increase awareness of the policies, facilities and support from the University and other actors

Develop ideas for follow up actions and activities